Novozelandanin Murdoch, drugi Kljaković-Gašpić

Only one race has been sailed on light airs today on the second day of 2015 Finn EC. Croatian sailors did well in these conditions as three of them passed finishing line among first ten. Sailing course was again set in Split Channel between the islands of Ciovo and Solta. Ivan Kljakovic –Gaspic (JK Labud) was second, Nenad Bugarin (JK Labud) took 7th position just in front of Milan Vujasinovic (JK Split) who was 8th.

“Light wind, nicely performed down wind leg, tactically correct sailing is a summary description of my today’s sailing. I did not went too far from the majority of the fleet and I have to be satisfy with second place” – this was the wording of popular Bambi, CRO No 1 Finn, who after three races holds 6th position.

After third race leading is Russian Arkadiy Kistanov, being still junior, second overall is Greek Ioannis Mitakis, in front of 3rd British Edward Wright currently being ranked first Finn on ISAF world list.

Fourth position is in the hands of New Zealander Josh Junior who yesterday took two bullets. Fifth overall is Andrew Murdoch who won today's race the only race sailed on 7 kn south westerly.

As we told previously 6th overall is Kljako-vic-Gaspic in front of young Labud's Finn sailor Nenad Bugarin who today finished 7th, 2nd overall – I had nice speed, although there was no much wind. However, I had also couple of mistakes but altogether it was fine on the sea – said this fellow from Novi Vinodolski, who is studying at Maritime University in Split together with his brother Bogoslav being skipper in Laser standard.

Milan Vujasinovic (YC Split), nicknamed Dugi (i.e. Long in English) finished at position no. 8 and holds now 12th position overall, while the two remaining Croatians Josip Olujic (JK Labud) and Tudor Bilic (JK Trogir) are holding 26th and 45th positions.

Tomorrow is expected weather change and SE wind gradually increasing on Friday.

Beginning is scheduled for 12 a.m

FINN LEGENDS

Among the sailing elite present on 2015 Finn EC attention is to be paid also to the coaches, as among numerous famous names three deserve particular attention.

John Bertrand, Australian, is Finn bronze medallist from 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal. However, his name is linked to the historical triumph in 1983 America's Cup when he skippered yacht Australia II and brought the Cup to Australia ending 132 years long USA supremacy.

Luca Devoti, Italian, has come to this event as Spanish team coach. His chest is decorated with silver medal from 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney. YC Labud have special feelings of him as on first big Finn event organized here in Split, 1997 Finn EC, he took gold medal. He was also leader of +39 syndicate on America's Cup in Valencia and invited in his team Karlo Kuret, YC Labud member and well known Finn sailor.

John Cutler, Englishman, coaching excellent New Zealand Finn team. In his background is also Finn Olympic medal, bronze from Seoul in 1988. Successful participation in several America's Cups with different syndicates illustrates his fame in world of sailing.

We do not have enough space in our bulletin to list all other medals of those three exceptional sailors, but we have enough space to express our admiring and wish them pleasant stay in our Club and town.

Today's race was difficult and demanding

MISTER FINN EUROPEAN!

We take it for granted that legend how Finn sailors are the most handsome sailors is the truth and we are going to test this theory in practice.

We shall daily publish our competitors' photos and jury composed of ladies only shall in due time decide who is the most handsome Finn sailor of 2015 European Championship.

THIRD RACE WINNER QUOTE

Andrew Murdoch

"It has been demanding today on sea but our "kiwi team" did well again. Now we have to continue in same manner on ... It was not easy to sail on light wind, I decided for left hand side of the course, the speed was good and there I was, first on finishing line" said New Zealander Murdoch third race and only Wednesday's race winner. This positioned him as 4th overall. He is looking forward to Friday when fresh breeze as per forecast is expected.

He stated feeling nice in Split for a second time: "Twelve years ago I sailed here on Laser Championship!"
